GREYWACKE WILD SAUVIGNON 2016

'At eight years of age…a little golden in the glass and has a nose of paraffin wax, bitter almonds, preserved citrus, white peach and a hint of asphalt/petrichor. In the mouth, the wine is powerful, composed, spicy, mouthfilling and concentrated. It still has a decade or so to go.'
92 Points, Erin Larkin, ROBERT PARKER WINE ADVOCATE - Tasted 2023

'All the complexity seen in great white wines, plenty of savoury influence…succulent and carefully layered texture.' Rated 44th. TOP 100 NZ WINES 2018, 94 Points, Nick Stock, JAMESSUCKLING.COM

'Artful influence of struck flint reductive character adding interest and complexity. It's easy to see how this stylish wine can attract a cult following.' 95 Points, Bob Campbell MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Restrained, delicate and dry, crisp and balanced with softness and drinkability. I like its subtlety. A delicious wine.' 95 Points, Huon Hooke, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Just gorgeous…fragrant and generous, with honeysuckle, key lime, lemongrass and fresh ginger notes that mingle with grapefruit and pear flavours.' 93 Points, MaryAnn Worobiec, WINESPECTATOR.COM

'A highly floral expression on the nose, exuding talc and rose petals, with a more delicate expression on the palate. Very pretty indeed.' 95 Points, Rebecca Gibb MW, DECANTER.COM

'Gooseberry and passionfruit. Rich, textured, spicy, passionfruit and ripe pear fruit, with lots of struck-match reduction. Brisk not crisp acidity. Long.' 17+ Points, Tim Jackson MW, JANCISROBINSON.COM

'Perky perfume of green herbs, gooseberry, passionfruit, citrus. Zingy in the palate and almost feels riesling racy. Nice kind of feel…Intriguing.' 93 Points, Mike Bennie, WINEFRONT.COM.AU

'A stunning, multi-layered sauvignon blanc…The more you taste it, the more you see.'
95 Points, Toni Paterson MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Kevin Judd's wines are never shy and never boring…an opulent Sauvignon, quite the opposite of the Marlborough style.' 90 Points, Christina Pickard, WINE ENTHUSIAST (USA)
